I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel who even at night directs my heart

Today, the training fund for student priests relies upon our generosity at the second collection at the end of Mass. For the Eucharist to be celebrated, we depend upon our priests, but they depend upon us to support them in training.

The Tablet. In this periodical's issue for 10th April, there was a particularly pertinent article written by the well known Dominican, Timothy Radcliffe. Permission has been obtained from the Tablet for the article to be photocopied for members of this parish and therefore there are copies of the article awaiting you at the back of the church today. It comes strongly recommended. More can be produced if asked. The article itself is down-to-earth and is, of course, concerned with side-effects of the whole abuse scandal. After reading it, you may be interested to find out more about the Tablet itself. The website address is <http://www.thetablet.co.uk> So please, help yourselves.

Jean Weedall, RIP. Jean's neice, Catherine Patterson very kindly sent the cheque this week from her Aunt's estate. Her letter particularly thanked everyone in the parish who had so generously given their time to visiting her Aunt in her final illness. "It was a great comfort to realise that there were both prayers and practical support from her own parish community."

Paul Inwood. A reminder of Paul's visit to this Pastoral Area on Saturday 15th May will be given to you as you leave church this morning. We would ask you to read and note it, preferably in your diaries, in the hope that as many as possible among us can benefit from his visit.

Reflections over Easter have begun in the parish room after Mass on Wednesday mornings. Perhaps you can join sometimes, if not each week. You would still find a welcome. Coffee to begin with, followed by maximum of one hour with the provided reflection material, which continues through to Pentecost.

First Holy Communion Sunday is next week, 25th. Come and pray with the families for Malo, Clarisse and Jules, Emma and Beth, Ines and William on their special day.

Mainly Women's Week begins tomorrow. We hope that you have remembered to sign up on the lists at the back of St Saviour's. If not, still take a card from the back of the church here today, and see what is probably still open to you, the men folk and your children. Have a good week. Paddy Lark would be very grateful for some help with the young children who will be in our parish room expecting tea - cakes etc. on Saturday afternoon around 2.30pm until 3.30.

Our thanks to Mgr Jeremy Garrett for being around for Mass every day last week. Welcome back to Fr Jamie from what we hope has been a good holiday. Mass will be restored to Wednesday and Friday, with a Communion Service on Tuesday.

Easter Flowers. Nowhere near enough money reached the collection for Easter flowers this year, so we will need to be asking for your help again before Whit Sunday. Be prepared!
